Hickinbotham Family

Our Family. Our Home

The Hickinbotham's – have been proud contributors to the Australian wine industry for over 85 years and over four generations.

Our home, South Australia, is the historic heart of Australian wine and home to some of the most famous wine regions and the oldest vines in the country.

The current custodians are father and son, David and Alan with the support of Alan's wife Louise and 5th generation, son Leo.

David has looked after the winemaking and management from the onset and Alan Robb looks after all the production, grape growing and buying and manages sales and marketing. Dena, David's late wife and Alan's mother, played an integral role in the winery's foundation and is greatly missed.

The Paringa Story

Established 1999

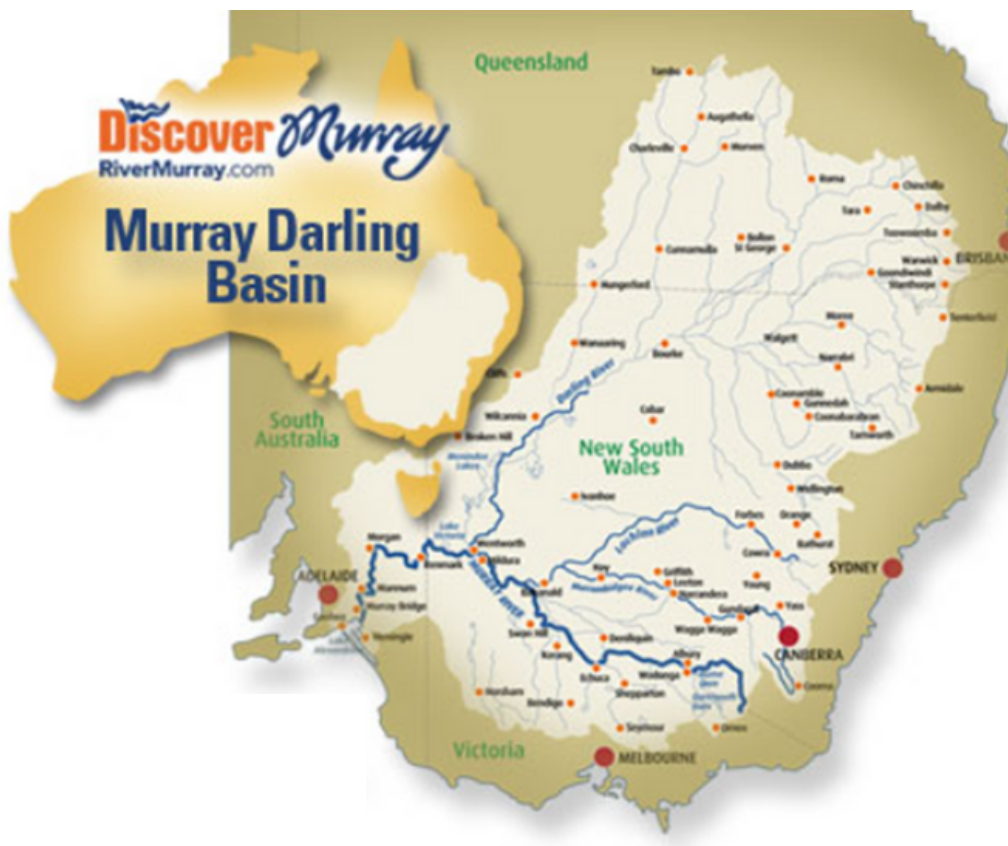

The Hickenbotham family established the Paringa vineyard in 1994. The name "Paringa" reflects our partnership with nature; it derives from the local Aboriginal language for "place at the river".

Farming one of the driest continents on earth, water and rivers have always been a major player in the vineyards; none more than the Mighty Murray.

The River Murray is to Australia what the Mississippi is to America, and the Rhine is to Europe.

“Our family’s aim is simple. To make the best value Shiraz on the planet”

Wine Spectator

Paringa has received eight smart Buys / Best Value listings with Wine Spectator.

WINE ENTHUSIAST

Two 'Best Buys' in 2021 for 2019 Paringa Shiraz and 2019 Cabernet Sauvignon. Number 8 'Best Value Wine' by Wine Enthusiast in 2017.

Wine Spectator

Paringa has been twice listed as one of the top 100 wines in the world – 2002 & 2013
